

Aidan Cottreau

Aidan Cottreau is a grade 12 student at Bell High School, where he holds a position on the Executive Student Council for the third consecutive year. This year he is the Community Events Head, in charge of organizing charitable events at the school. Aidan loves summer camps, and has Red Pine Camp with his family all his life. The past two summers, he has spent working with children ages 0-12 as a junior program leader at RPC and ages 11-16 as a councilor at Camp Otterdale. Above all else, Aidan is an actor. In his years at Bell, he has been in productions of Guys and Dolls, Oliver, and Our Town, as well as Bell's entries in the Sears drama festival Antigony and Two Precious Maidens. This year, he holds the lead role of Scrooge in the Bell HS production of Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" this december. Next year, he hopes to begin a degree in theatre performance. Aidan enjoys reading, writing, and chess - he is co-head and co-captain of Bell's chess club and team. If he could have any superpower, it would be telekinesis.

Canadian Institute of Child Health, 2016